

SURESNES, 1 DEC, 2015

---

Aymar Hénin is appointed DomusVi CEO

Aymar Hénin is appointed DomusVi CEO on 1 Dec, 2015. Aymar Hénin started his career at Price Waterhouse (1992 – 1998) as an auditor then as a consultant. He is on a humanitarian mission in 1995 in Afghanistan. In 1998, He joins General Electric Group as a consultant under the program 6 Sigma , in charge of integrating acquisitions (1999 – 2000), then as General Manager of the Modular Space of France (2000 – 2001), then of European department (2001 – 2004). In 2004, he becomes GE Capital Fleet Services France CEO, until 2008. In 2008, he is appointed Compass Group CEO, for France, then for France, Belgium and Luxembourg.

Aymar Hénin, 48 year old, is married and has 4 children.

He graduated of Commercial Institut of Nancy.

DomusVi at a glance

DomusVi is the 3rd largest provider of services to elderly people in France and in Spain. It provides a full range of services, with 227 nursing homes, 16 residential facilities, 4 mental care facilities, 46 home care agencies (among which 14 home care nursing services) throughout France and Spain. The group employs almost 16 000 people.

www.domusvi.com